Dear Guidance Counselor:

"In the arena of human life, the honors and rewards fall to those who show their good qualities in action." — Aristotle

The California Theta Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon is offering up to 5 Balanced Man Scholarships up to $1000.00 each to outstanding freshman males entering California State University, Sacramento next year. We are offering this scholarship to incoming male students who embody the principles of a Balanced Man. Our aim is to recognize and reward men who strive to achieve both balance and all-around excellence; this is what we believe is essential toward achieving a satisfying college experience and life. To qualify, applicants must be attending California State University, SACRAMENTO in the fall of 2008, have a minimum 3.0 GPA, and along with this application, turn in a copy of their official high school transcript by June 30th 2009, to:

Eric Young__
Balanced Man Scholarship Director
Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity

Sacramento CA, 95818

Enclosed is an information flyer about the scholarship and 20 applications. I would greatly appreciate it if you would post the flyer and distribute the application to any man who will be attending California State University, Sacramento next fall. Any of this information may be photocopied. Questions concerning the Balanced Man Scholarship should be directed to Balanced Man Scholarship Director Eric Young at 707-332-2590. More information about the scholarship can be found on our national website at www.sigep.org.

Students applying for the Balanced Man Scholarship are in NO way obligated to join Sigma Phi Epsilon to be eligible for the scholarships. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Eric Young
