El Dorado High School 2024 Senior Class Pledge & Dress Code Notification

In order to make graduation an experience that the “Class of 2024” and I can be proud of, I agree that I will behave according to the following guidelines:

1. Dress according to the published instructions.
2. Submit to dress inspection prior to the ceremony.
3. Wear the gown appropriately throughout the ceremony.
4. Not take disruptive materials into the graduation ceremony (i.e. beach balls, confetti, etc.)
5. Not shout, yell or make any inappropriate noises during the ceremony.
6. Not throw any materials whatsoever.
7. Not make any inappropriate gestures.
8. Be attentive and respectful of all persons on and off the stage.
9. March/walk appropriately to my selected seat.
10. Not stand on the chairs or turn and wave to the audience.
11. Walk on the stage, receive my diploma with dignity, walk off the stage in a dignified manner and return to my seat.

I fully understand the behavior required of me. I further understand that if I violate any part of the terms of the above pledge I may be removed from graduation and will not receive my diploma until there is a conference with the principal, and my parents. Please understand that the commencement service is not mandatory; it is your choice to attend or not. We sincerely hope, however, that no senior will choose to miss this meaningful ceremony. It is our feeling at El Dorado High School that all seniors should participate in this final ceremony to honor themselves, their teachers, their friends, and their parents as they unite to demonstrate respect and appreciation for the education they have received.

If you have questions regarding suitability of a particular outfit, please check with Mrs. Grudin. Below are definitions of appropriate attire:

Shoes: Must match and be clean - appropriate for any dignified ceremony or semi-formal occasions. No flip-flops, athletic/tennis shoes, slippers, etc. Clean, polished boots are acceptable, as are dress sandals. Please use good judgment.

Hair: Clean and nicely done. Please, nothing outlandish that prevents the cap from fitting properly. The key here is neat - as long as it allows the cap to fit properly. Remember, this is a formal occasion.

Clothing: Boys: Full collared shirt (no t-shirts and absolutely no logos whatsoever.) A tie is most appropriate and is highly encouraged but not mandatory. Pants must be full length (no jeans, shorts, or cut offs.) Girls: A nice dress/skirt, or dress pants are appropriate (no jeans, shorts, or cut-offs.) Please adhere to the school dress code. Remember, this is a formal occasion.

NO WRITTEN OR DESIGN MODIFICATIONS TO CAPS AND GOWNS.

NO FLOWER LEIS (they damage the artificial turf).
